

CVHRMA Board of Directors – Bio Information

Name: Judith Lanning

Place of Employment: Modesto Junior College

Title: Director of Workforce Development

Education/Certificates:

- Certificate in Human Resource Management
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, STANISLAUS
- Doctor of Education, Curriculum and Instruction, in progress
- Master of Science, Occupational and Technical Education
OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY
(with coursework in Instructional Technology, Training Models and Technical Simulations)
- Bachelor of Science, Criminal Justice
FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY
- Associate of Applied Science, Law Enforcement Technology
JOHNSTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Personal Background:

Prior to coming to California in 2001, Judith served on a variety of nonprofit boards dedicated to youth services in Virginia. Judith currently is a member of Modesto Sunrise Rotary, the American Association of University Women, the Council for Resource Development, the Workforce and Education Committee for the Stanislaus Economic Development and Workforce Alliance as well as two nonprofits serving the Central Valley Region of California.

Hobbies:

Hobbies include proposal writing, grant writing, grant research and grassroots nonprofit development. Current projects emphasize a focus on growing the “green” economy in California’s workforce.

An interesting fact about me:

My first career was in law enforcement where I served as the Job Transition Specialist for one third of the Commonwealth of Virginia. I worked with youth exiting incarceration in the juvenile justice system and assisted them in returning to their home communities and obtaining gainful employment.

Goals for your CVHRMA board position:

My goals as the Workforce Readiness Advocate this year are to assist CVHRMA in any way possible in achieving and keeping its outstanding chapter rating and continue to develop the Workforce Readiness linkages for our organization.